UNIVERSITY POLICY INDEX

The university policy index captures the recognition policies reported to the IB by universities from around the world. Please note that it is far from an exhaustive list of all universities which welcome and admit IB students every year, as many chose to only record their recognition statements on their own websites.

The information in the document was correct at the point that it was collected and collated, however students, parents and teachers should always check the individual university websites directly before making decisions regarding their university applications.

If you have any questions about recognition please email us at recognition@ibo.org.

CANADA University of Calgary

Policy:

Admission The University of Calgary values and recognizes the rigours of the full International Baccalaureate diploma program. Admission to the University of Calgary is granted on a competitive basis. As an IB Diploma student, your eligibility for our recognition program requires that you satisfy the admission criteria for your chosen program of study. Please refer to the IB Admission Requirements details information on the University of Calgary Admissions Web site. Early Admission (i.e., conditional admission) decisions will be based on anticipated results. Speak with your IB coordinator to ensure that appropriate interim results are submitted to the University of Calgary in a timely manner. The deadline for submission of results for Early Admission consideration is April 1. You must also ensure that your final IB results are submitted to the University of Calgary. These are required for us to consider you for Formal Admission and for us to confirm your eligibility for our IB recognition and benefits program. Please ensure that you make a formal request to IB to release your results to the University of Calgary. If you are studying in a Canadian high school, you may submit both your provincial curriculum results and your IB results. We will use whichever result works to your advantage when we make Early and Formal admission decisions. Please note that we will consider the two sets of results independently and will not blend them to determine your eligibility. Note: All applicants for admission to University of Calgary must also meet English Language Proficiency requirements. Advanced Credit and Standing All IB Diploma holders are granted the equivalent of one full year of advanced credit. This is one of the policies designed to recognize the already considerable accomplishments of IB students. The year of credit will take the form of a combination of specific equivalents to U of C courses and general non-specified course credit. Since students must still meet all degree requirements, the impact of the year of credit on your program will depend both on the degree program you choose and the courses covered in your IB Diploma. Your credit may allow you to take higher level courses in your first year and may reduce the number of courses you need to complete your degree. However, the way in which this advanced credit is applied varies by faculty and program. For details on the specific advanced credit awarded for IB courses view our Advanced Credit policy. Advisors in your chosen faculty will help you make the most of this policy. We recommend that you consult with a faculty advisor well in advance of registering for your courses. SUCCESS Program SUCCESS is a special recognition program designed to reward high achieving students and ease your transition from high school to university by offering a range of priority services and benefits. IB Diploma students with a minimum predicted grade of 30 points (including bonus points) who are admitted to the University of Calgary are automatically inducted into the SUCCESS program and will be entitled to the following: * Priority course registration (for Admitted and Early Admitted students) * Guaranteed on-campus residential accommodation (guaranteed until April 30th) * Designated faculty advisor access * Early locker registration * Summer access to athletic facilities * Meet-your-faculty sessions * Regular email updates highlighting important dates and campus developments * Discount at the university bookstore on non-text items Please refer to the SUCCESS program web site for details.

Policy:

University IB Diploma Recognition Policy The University of New Brunswick welcomes and encourages applications from International Baccalaureate students. Similar to the IB program, the UNB learning environment has at the heart of its design, student centered, purposeful and challenging teaching. With eleven distinct Faculties encompassing a plethora of subjects and levels of study, on two distinct but integrated campuses (Fredericton and Saint John), UNB fosters multidisciplinary flexibility of field and place of study.

UNB values the holistic and rigorous curriculum of the IB program and, as such, recognizes applicants in two important ways. The first is with respect to admission. IB courses are viewed and assessed as advanced level study and may be considered as an equivalent to particular UNB courses, in effect counting as UNB transfer credits. More specifically, UNB offers transfer credits for successfully completed Higher Level courses (with a minimum grade of 5, 6 or 7) in English, French, History, Economics, Math, Chemistry, Biology and Physics.

The second is with respect to scholarships. When calculating an applicant's scholarship average, UNB awards as much as three bonus points for successfully completed advanced level courses, increasing either the likelihood of receiving a scholarship offer or the scholarship offer itself.

The University of Eastern Finland (UEF) was established in 2010 as the result of the merger of the University of Joensuu and the University of Kuopio. The University of Eastern Finland is a multidisciplinary university, which offers teaching in more than 100 major subjects. The university comprises four faculties: the Philosophical Faculty, the Faculty of Science and Forestry, the Faculty of Health Sciences, and the Faculty of Social Sciences and Business Studies.

The University of Eastern Finland welcomes applications from candidates with the full IB Diploma. In UEF the IB Diplomas are considered equal to the Finnish high school diplomas (general upper secondary education leaving certificates). They are graded according to a system and after the applicants have taken the entrance exam, both the points from the IB Diploma and the points from the exam are put together and the students are ranked according to these points.

If the IB Diploma has been completed in the same year as the candidate is applying to UEF, in some cases the only possibility to be admitted is to pass the entrance examination.

As a rule, all applicants for undergraduate programmes must pass a subject-related entrance examination in late May or early June. It is important to note that these entrance examinations are held in Finnish.

For further information please contact the Admissions Office (hakijapalvelut\(at\)uef.fiuef.fi)) or see our website www.uef.fi/hae.- December 2012

The exceptions to this rule are the foreign language majors: French, German, Spanish, etc. The only examination fully in English is the English Philology examination. All examinations are arranged in Helsinki, Finland.

The policies concerning applicants with an IB qualification may differ from one Faculty to another e.g. how they evaluate the scores and, consequently, how many bonus points can be given. Contact the Admissions Services (admissions@helsinki.fi) for more information.

JORDAN Ministry of Education

Policy:

In order to obtain a certificate of equivalency with Tawjihi, students are required to take the following documents to the 'Equivalency Department' (ED) at the Ministry of Education's 'Directorate of Examinations':

- a) Certificate issued by the school stating that the student has completed his/her high school education, duly authenticated by the Ministry's 'Directorate of Private Education'.
- b) Equivalency Request Form (which can be obtained from the 'ED'), duly filled in by the candidate.
- c) A photocopy of the student's national identification card (original to be presented for verification).
- d) A photocopy of the student's official Transcript of Results (original to be presented for verification)

The Ministry will accordingly issue a certificate of equivalency equating the results to 'Science' or 'Arts' stream Tawjihi.

However, official transcripts of results (item d above) are not issued by the IBO until after the middle of August. In order to help students meet the application deadline to Jordanian universities, an unofficial transcript of results should instead be printed off the computer by the school and then duly signed and authenticated by the Principal. Once this is presented to the Ministry - together with the other required documents - a 'copy' of the equivalency certificate will be issued which may be attached to applications. However, once students receive their official Transcripts of Results in August they must submit them to the Equivalency Department in order to receive the original 'Certificate of Equivalency' which is required for 'registration' at university. Schools with Jordanian candidates who are planning to attend Jordanian universities should complete a B2 form (results provision request) on IBNET/IBIS to request that the results of these students be released to the Ministry of Education in Jordan.

JORDAN The University of Jordan

4 = 70%, 3 = 60%, 2 = 50%, 1 = 40%.

The bonus points are not regarded, as the average could arise to 100%.

KOREA, REPUBLIC OF Seoul National University

Policy:

The IB courses are factored into the evaluation for admissions in SNU admission programs International Admissions and General Early Admissions.

A. International Admissions: International students (His or her parents as well as the applicant himself or herself are not citizens of Korea) and Korean students who have received his or her entire primary and secondary education outside of Korea may apply for International Admissions at Seoul National University. International admissions are focused on both on the candidate's previous academic achievement and potential. Moreover, other personal accomplishments are taken into consideration, which may be demonstrated in additional materials submitted along with application documents. International Admissions are offered twice in each academic year. Application for Spring intake is scheduled to run in July and August, while that for Fall intake is in January and February. Applicants may check further details from the Official Notice on the SNU website: <http://en.snu.ac.kr/apply/info>.

International Admissions Does not require any written examination other than the submission of required documents. However, depending on academic policy of each department (for example, College of Medicine), there may be an interview, if necessary. A strong score in IB Diploma or IB Diploma Course qualification will be considered favorably for admissions decision. A good command of Korean or English is recommended for the undergraduate study at SNU. 'Conditional Offer' can be granted to those applicants who have submitted 'IB Predicted Grade' prior to the release of their actual IB grade. SNU will inform the required 'Final Grade' that must be met by an applicant. This policy is applicable in each Fall semester as of the academic year of 2014. Those who are holding 'Conditional Offer' must submit the Final IB Grade by the designated date as indicated in the Admissions Guide. Contingent upon the 'Final IB Grade' which fulfills a satisfactory completion of the required final grade, SNU will announce the Final Decision on 'Conditional Offer' around the middle of July.

B. General Early Admissions: SNU offers 'General Early Admission', which is in line with Early Admission for Korean domestic students. The number of students admitted under General Early Admission takes more than 50% of the SNU admission quota in total as of 2014. General Early Admission is offered once an academic year, which is for Spring semester intake.

A strong score in IB Diploma or IB Diploma Course qualification will be considered favorably for admissions decision. Applicants for General Early Admission, whose application documents have passed the first round of screening, are subject to mandatory interview or oral exam in Korean. Applicants may be exempt from interview or oral exam, if their application documents are considered distinct and outstanding. Applicants may check further details from the Official Notice on the SNU website: <http://en.snu.ac.kr/apply/info>.

For instance, an IB Diploma holder who has scored between 28 and 32 points is eligible for exemption from the first year programme provided he/she meets the requirements for the intended programme of study at NUL. LITHUANIA

Vilnius University

Policy:

Vilnius University values the high standards of the International Baccalaureate curriculum, respects the requirements to achieve the IB Diploma, and similarly views the IB Diplomaholders. The minimum total of 24 points meets the general formal requirement for the applicant to be considered for admission and further participation in the competition at Vilnius University. The numerus clausus system affects all fields of study at the University the selective criteria being based both on the grades in the secondary school leaving certificate and results of Vilnius University's entrance examinations. 2 entrance exams are required: one of which is the exam on applied Lithuanian language, another one depends on the field of study chosen by the candidate.

Taking into account the differences of the IB Diploma and the Lithuanian ordinary secondary school grading systems, the former scale of 3 (min) to 7 (max) is the equivalent of the current scale 4 (min) to 10 (max). The grade 2 is considered as a non-passing corresponding to the grade 3 in the national evaluation system.

In spite of the fact that the IB curriculum requirements could be accepted as selective criteria at VU, candidates with the IB Diploma wishing to enter Vilnius University are considered on an individual basis. Lithuanian language is mandatory, since it is the state language and language of instruction as well.

The University of Johannesburg recognises the full IB Diploma as a school-leaving certificate

General information about university admissions in South Africa (ZA)

Access to higher education in South Africa is regulated through legislation and it is conducted on two levels. In the first place, candidates need to meet the legislated minimum admission requirements which are administered by the Matriculation Board. One of the critical functions of this Board is to advise the Minister of Higher Education and Training on the minimum admission requirements for higher education studies. The Matriculation Board operates under the auspices of Higher Education South Africa (HESA). HESA is the coordinating body for the 23 public universities in South Africa.

The International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma and Certificate are fully recognized for university admission in South Africa as reflected in the government gazette no.: 31674, vol. 522 of 5 December 2008. Candidates with international school leaving qualifications which are locally benchmarked and approved such as the International Baccalaureate and wish to apply for university studies in South Africa are required to apply for certificates of exemption from the Matriculation Board. The detailed exemption application procedure can be accessed on the Higher Education Enrolment Programme website available on www.hesa-enrol.ac.za Applications for exemption certificates can also be addressed to the Matriculation Board via the University and must be accompanied by the application form, copy of the school leaving qualification and the relevant exemption fee.

SOUTH AFRICA University of Natal

Policy:

At the University of Natal the IB Diploma is recognised as a school leaving qualification. No courses are recognised towards a degree. Applicants in possession of an IB Diploma need to have obtained at least 24 points in the IB to be considered for admission.

As no IB credits are transferable towards a degree, the IB at present has the effect that candidates have to complete 13 years of schooling compared to the 12 years of schooling required to obtain the South African Senior Certificate with university endorsement, which is the qualification required for admission to the University studies in our country.

May 1994

SOUTH AFRICA University of Port Elizabeth

Policy:

A person holding a foreign school-leaving certificate must submit an application to the South African Matriculation Board in order to ascertain whether he/she qualifies for a certificate of either full or conditional exemption from the matriculation examination. No student's application will be accepted by this University without such a certificate.

The Matriculation Board has confirmed that it recognises the International Baccalaureate Diploma and students who hold this diploma will be issued with a certificate of conditional exemption for foreigners.

Once the student is in possession of the above-mentioned certificate, his/her application will be accepted by the University, subject to the admission requirements specified by the various faculties.

November 2000

SOUTH AFRICA University of South Africa (UNISA)

Policy:

A holder of an IB Diploma will on application qualify for a foreign conditional exemption certificate. This certificate issued by the Matriculation Board of the Committee of University Principals constitutes the minimum general requirement for first degree studies at the University.

Alternatively, a holder of 5 IB Certificates with Grade 4 to 7 subject credits in two HL and three SL subjects (which must include English) will also on application qualify for a foreign conditional exemption certificate of the Matriculation Board.

Applications for such certificates must be directed to the University and must be accompanied by the relevant exemption fee. Holders of the above qualifications may, where applicable, be required to satisfy specific faculty or course admission requirements.

June 1998

SOUTH AFRICA University of Witwatersrand

Policy:

All recognised universities in this country are bound by the provisions of the Universities Act which require a student to have obtained a matriculation certificate or a certificate of exemption issued by the Matriculation Board. Generally, a school-leaving qualification which entitles the holder to unconditional admission to a university or institution in the country where the qualification was obtained, provided the Matriculation Board has approved such university/institution, will be recognised in South Africa. Holders of the IB Diploma qualifications will normally qualify for an exemption by the Matriculation Board. This University itself has no difficulty with IB applicants provided the Matriculation Board grants an exemption. While some faculties use a rating system, holders of foreign qualifications are not normally rated in the same way. Entry to degree courses, particularly to restricted degrees, is normally dependant upon a satisfactory result (a candidate offering ""C"" symbols or above would fall into this category). Undergraduate foreign applicants who are not South African citizens or who do not have permanent residence or who do not live in neighbouring states are likely to have difficulty in obtaining a study permit.

Students with a IB Diploma whom want to enter to the Spanish universities or Technical Colleges, don't have to pass the prior National Test to access at the Universities in Spain (Selectividad or P.A.U.).

According to the Law of the Ministry of Education of May 4th, 2010 (BOE 111, May 7th, 2010) and its update on the equalisation board (Law July 6th, 2010) General Secretariat of Universities (BOE 167, July 10th, 2010), students can use their IB Diploma to access to Spanish universities, avoiding the P.A.U. test.

on a case-by-case basis. As with all advanced credit at CSF, the appropriate department chair will determine whether the International Baccalaureate Program course applies to specific degree requirements.

UNITED STATES College of St. Scholastica

Policy:

Students who have been formally admitted at the College of St. Scholastica may petition for up to 4 transfer credits for each IB course completed with a higher level examination grade of 4 or above. To petition for credit, students must submit to the Registrar a written request for credit, a Certificate for each higher level IB examination completed, and a syllabus for each of the courses. The Certificates will be copied and returned to the students. Then the requests will be forwarded to the appropriate academic departments at the College for acceptability and course equivalence recommendations. Finally, these materials will be returned to the Registrar for postings to the students' records.

UNITED STATES El Centro College

Policy:

The International Baccalaureate Diploma is an international program of courses and exams offered at the high school level. In keeping with Senate Bill 111 passed in 2005, the DCCCD will grant (CR) credit for IB exams with certain required scores beginning Fall of 2006.

Texas institutions of higher education must award 24 hours of course specific college credit in subject appropriate areas on all IB exams scores of 4 or above as long as the incoming freshmen have earned an IB diploma. However, course credit does not have to be awarded on any IB exams where the score received is a 3 or less. This may mean that such students will not receive 24 hours of college credit, even if they have an IB diploma.

Students must send an IB transcript to the DCCCD college of their choice. All IB students must show proof of meeting the Texas Success Initiative (TSI) requirements prior to their initial enrollment at Dallas County Community College District.

The DCCCD will not award a diploma based solely upon the number of IBD credits transferred in toward a degree requirement. DCCCD and SACS (Southern Association of Colleges and Schools/Commission on Colleges) policies require students to take 25% of credit hours through DCCCD instruction for graduation purposes.

Students bringing in an IB transcript for credit evaluation should consider the total number of qualifying credits to be awarded. Additional hours above the required amount to graduate may have an adverse impact on students' financial aid or other grant programs. In addition, no Texas public university or college shall be required to accept in transfer or toward a degree program more than sixty-six (66) semester credit hours of lower division academic credit.

The International Baccalaureate (IB) Organization's Diploma Program enables students who have pursued college-level studies in high school to receive college credit based on their performance on IB examinations. Students are expected to take International Baccalaureate courses from a secondary educational institution authorized by the International Baccalaureate Organization. Students do not need to complete the International Baccalaureate Diploma to receive credit. Below is a description of University policy concerning IB scores and credits.

Students who have not completed the International Baccalaureate diploma may receive 6 or more credits for scores of 4 or higher on higher-level exams, up to a maximum of 30 credits. Credit may be awarded for standard-level exams.

Individual departments and/or colleges may specify the exact courses required to fill their requirements and may require more than the minimum General Education requirements.
